

Local Alcohol and Drug Planning Committee, Coos County

New Member Packet

About the LADPC:

LADPCs were established by Law: ORS 430.342

The governing body of each county or combination of counties in a mental health administrative area, as designated by the Alcohol and Drug Policy Commission, shall:

- (a) Appoint a local planning committee for alcohol and drug prevention and treatment services; or
 - (b) Designate an already existing body to act as the local planning committee for alcohol and drug prevention and treatment services.
- (2) The committee shall identify needs and establish priorities for alcohol and drug prevention and treatment services that best suit the needs and values of the community and shall report its findings to the Oregon Health Authority, the governing bodies of the counties served by the committee and the budget advisory committee of the commission.
- (3) Members of the local planning committee shall be representative of the geographic area and shall be persons with interest or experience in developing alcohol and drug prevention and treatment services. The membership of the committee shall include a number of minority members which reasonably reflects the proportion of the need for prevention, treatment and rehabilitation services of minorities in the community.

Coos County LADPC:

Mission:

To build a platform for reducing the negative effects of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs.

Vision:

Coos County will be a healthy, safe environment where everyone will have access to resources that promote well-being and happiness.

Guiding Principles:

- Resilience overcomes trauma
- All people deserve help, even the most complex and those furthest from opportunity
- Each community in Coos County has unique strengths and needs
- Relationships where people feel safe and have a voice are foundational to change

LADPC Membership:

LADPC Members are appointed by County Commissioners for a term of 2 years (on a July 1-June 30 calendar year). The LADPC meets once a month and welcomes the public to join. Remote phone/online video feed available.

LADPC Members must regularly prepare for, attend, and conscientiously participate in LADPC meetings and the meetings of committees to which they have been appointed.

Bylaws are the rules that govern the LADPC. Members are expected to be familiar with the rules established in the Bylaws.

LADPC Members will be granted access to an online basecamp portal where meeting documents and important files and information is stored. Technical assistance in using basecamp can be provided.
